Justin Luthy

7034 Violet Veil Ct.
Dublin, OH 43016
Open to Relocation

(919)-627-4051   luthy2@gmail.com   luthy2.github.io   linkedin.com/in/justinluthy

Summary

Former professional athlete transitioning into a career in technology. Curious, motivated learner. Business school graduate and self-taught programmer. World traveler, and future startup founder.

Education

Boston College Carroll School of Management (Sept. 2009 - May 2013)
B.S., Management; Finance & Marketing

- Balanced classwork, and a full practice schedule to graduate with an in-major 3.3 GPA from a finance program consistently ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report.
- Attended on a full athletic scholarship. Four year Men's Varsity Soccer starter, earned both school and conference athletic awards.
- Represented the Men's Soccer team in the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, a group that advocates for Student-Athlete welfare, and organizes community service projects.

Experience

Colorado Springs Switchbacks (Feb. 2017 - Oct. 2017)

- Professional Soccer Player

Portland Timbers (Jan. 2014 - Oct. 2016)

- Professional soccer player for the Portland Timbers 2

Skills

Languages

- Python (advanced), JavaScript (intermediate), HTML5/CSS3 (intermediate), SQL (basic)

Technologies

- Flask (advanced), React (intermediate), Angular (intermediate), REST (intermediate), HTTP (intermediate), Postgres (basic), Redis (basic), Memcached (basic)

Projects

Zipp (2015-2017)

Designed, built, and deployed a bookmarking and link sharing web app.

- Implemented application logic with python flask, and front-end with Angular, and server side templates.
- Analyzed performance bottlenecks, and implemented REST endpoints, AJAX, asynchronous operations and caching with Redis, Memcached, and Celery to significantly improve page load times.
- Deployed to Heroku and Integrated with 3rd party APIs for rich link previews, analytics, Twitter sign-in, and email notifications.